Angeles, We have a meeting with you, Wayne, Yolanda, Brianna, and I tomorrow morning to check in on where we are in prep for a potential dispute, and then more specifically any prep required for EM's meeting with the State (hopefully March 8) and then the Navy/DRC.

Here's the rough outline that we are working on. I think it's a good start for a dispute statement. If we all agree, then we could start filling it in more. Also, we could use it as somewhat of an outline for how to structure our meeting with the DRC. And also need to decide at what stage we share it with HQ. Or maybe even more important is to share DRC meeting prep materials with HQ, since that is where we will need to have more indepth Qs and As/TPs, such as answers to things like, "why has BPRG never been used?", "is BPRB peer-reviewed?", etc.
